The act of March 4, 1909, going into effect July 1, 1909, provides that the Catalog of Copyright Entries "shall be admitted in any court as prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein as regards any copyright registration."

THE Catalog of Copyright Entries is published in four parts. Part 2, containing the entries for periodicals, including newspapers, is issued quarterly. The entries are arranged alphabetically by titles.

Under the act of March 4, 1909, copyright initiates upon publication with notice. Registration follows deposit of copies with an application for entry in the Copyright Office.

To save space in the Catalog, the copyright notice after each title is abbreviated. The abbreviations used in this part are as follows: "B", Class B, Periodicals; "©" stands for copyright registration, followed by date of publication.

A list of the copyright renewals made for periodicals under sections 23 and 24 of the act of March 4, 1909, will be found at the end of this issue, immediately following the text.

The fourth number, completing the volume, contains a full annual index to titles and proprietors. The subscription price for the complete calendar year for Part 2 (Periodicals) is $2.00, payable in advance to the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C., by postal money order, express order, or New York draft.

NOTICE

The Copyright Act of 1909 provides that of the articles deposited for copyright registration the Librarian of Congress shall determine what books and other articles shall be transferred to the permanent collections of the Library of Congress and what other books or articles shall be transferred to other governmental libraries in the District of Columbia for use therein.

The Act further provides that any article undisposed of as above and still remaining on the shelves of the Copyright Office may be returned to the claimant of copyright under the provisions of section 60 of the Act. 5

NOTICE is, therefore, hereby given to any author, copyright proprietor, or other lawful claimant, that, insofar as any copyright articles deposited from January 1, 1929, to December 31, 1935, inclusive, are still remaining in the files of the Copyright Office, and are not to be transferred to the Library of Congress or to any other governmental library in the District of Columbia, such books or articles may be returned to the claimant of copyright if requested by such claimant prior to December 31, 1937.

This notice includes any printed and published copyright deposits, such as books, periodicals, dramatic compositions, musical compositions, engravings, cuts or prints, lithographs, photo-engravings, or photographs. NEW SERIES, VOLUME 32
No. 2

The act of March 4, 1909, going into effect July 1, 1909, provides that the Catalog of Copyright Entries "shall be admitted in any court as prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein as regards any copyright registration."

THE Catalog of Copyright Entries is published in four parts. Part 2, containing the entries for periodicals, including newspapers, is issued quarterly. The entries are arranged alphabetically by titles.

To save space in the Catalog, the copyright notice after each title is abbreviated. The abbreviations used in this part are as follows: "B", Class B, Periodicals; "©" stands for copyright registration, followed by date of publication.

A list of the copyright renewals made for periodicals under sections 23 and 24 of the act of March 4, 1909, will be found at the end of this issue, immediately following the text.

The fourth number, completing the volume, contains a full annual index to titles and proprietors. The subscription price for the complete calendar year for Part 2 (Periodicals) is $2.00, payable in advance to the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C., by postal money order, express order, or New York draft.

The Act further provides that any article undisposed of as above and still remaining on the shelves of the Copyright Office may be returned to the claimant of copyright under the provisions of section 60 of the Act.

NOTICE is, therefore, hereby given to any author, copyright proprietor, or other lawful claimant, that, insofar as any copyright articles deposited from January 1, 1929, to December 31, 1935, inclusive, are still remaining in the files of the Copyright Office, and are not to be transferred to the Library of Congress or to any other governmental library in the District of Columbia, such books or articles may be returned to the claimant of copyright if requested by such claimant prior to December 31, 1937.

NEW SERIES, VOLUME 32
No. 3

The act of March 4, 1909, going into effect July 1, 1909, provides that the Catalog of Copyright Entries "shall be admitted in any court as prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein as regards any copyright registration."

THE Catalog of Copyright Entries is published in four parts. Part 2, containing the entries for periodicals, including newspapers, is issued quarterly. The entries are arranged alphabetically by titles.

To save space in the Catalog, the copyright notice after each title is abbreviated. The abbreviations used in this part are as follows: "B," Class B, Periodicals; "©" stands for copyright registration, followed by date of publication.

A list of the copyright renewals made for periodicals under sections 23 and 24 of the act of March 4, 1909, will be found at the end of this issue, immediately following the text.

The fourth number, completing the volume, contains a full annual index to titles and proprietors. The subscription price for the complete calendar year for Part 2 (Periodicals) is $2.00, payable in advance to the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C., by postal money order, express order, or New York draft.

NOTICE

The Copyright Act of 1909 provides that of the articles deposited for copyright registration the Librarian of Congress shall determine what books and other articles shall be transferred to the permanent collections of the Library of Congress and what other books or articles shall be transferred to other governmental libraries in the District of Columbia for use therein.

The Act further provides that any article undisposed of as above and still remaining on the shelves of the Copyright Office may be returned to the claimant of copyright under the provisions of section 60 of the Act.

NOTICE is, therefore, hereby given to any author, copyright proprietor, or other lawful claimant, that, insofar as any copyright articles deposited from January 1, 1929, to December 31, 1935, inclusive, are still remaining in the files of the Copyright Office, and are not to be transferred to the Library of Congress or to any other governmental library in the District of Columbia, such books or articles may be returned to the claimant of copyright if requested by such claimant prior to December 31, 1937.

This notice includes any printed and published copyright deposits, such as books, periodicals, dramatic compositions, musical compositions, engravings, cuts or prints, lithographs, photo-engravings, or photographs. Manuscripts or typewritten dramas and photographs filed for identifying works of art may not be returned. No maps are available for return.

THIS NUMBER CONTAINS THE VOLUME INDEX

The act of March 4, 1909, going into effect July 1, 1909, provides that the Catalog of Copyright Entries "shall be admitted in any court as prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein as regards any copyright registration."

THE Catalog of Copyright Entries is published in four parts. Part 2, containing the entries for periodicals, including newspapers, is issued quarterly. The entries are arranged alphabetically by titles.

To save space in the Catalog, the copyright notice after each title is abbreviated. The abbreviations used in this part are as follows: "B," Class B, Periodicals; "©" stands for copyright registration, followed by date of publication.

A list of the copyright renewals made for periodicals under section 23 of the act of March 4, 1909, will be found at the end of the issue, immediately following the text.

The fourth number, completing the volume, contains a full annual index to titles and proprietors. The Copyright Act of 1909 provides that, of the articles deposited for copyright registration, the Librarian of Congress shall determine what books and other articles shall be transferred to the permanent collections of the Library of Congress and what other books or articles shall be transferred to other governmental libraries in the District of Columbia for use therein.

The Act further provides that any article undisposed of as above and still remaining on the shelves of the Copyright Office may be returned to the claimant of copyright under the provisions of section 60 of the Act.

NOTICE is, therefore, hereby given to any author, copyright proprietor, or other lawful claimant, that, insofar as any copyright articles deposited from January 1, 1929, to December 31, 1935, inclusive, are still remaining in the files of the Copyright Office, and are not to be transferred to the Library of Congress or to any other governmental library in the District of Columbia, such books or articles may be returned to the claimant of copyright if requested by such claimant prior to December 31, 1938.

This notice includes any printed and published copyright deposits, such as books, periodicals, dramatic compositions, musical compositions, engravings, cuts or prints, lithographs, photo-engravings, or photographs. Manuscripts or typewritten dramas and photographs filed for identifying works of art may not be returned. No maps are available for return.
